

Welcome:

Thank you for visiting the homepage of the “Wiesenhof Bed-and-Breakfast” in Templin, Brandenburg. We cater for international travelers exploring the beautiful Uckermark district in northeastern Germany. Our BB is equipped with spacious, modern rooms and amenities that will make your stay in Templin a memorable one. Personalized service, flexibility, value for money and an offering of leisure activities come as part of a package that is geared toward the requirements of visitors from all over the globe.

The “Wiesenhof B&B” is in walking distance to the historical town centre of Templin and ideally situated to explore the many lakes and waterways, as well as nature conservation areas surrounding Templin. Berlin is easily reachable by car or train.

The “Wiesenhof B&B” is owned and managed by family Heussen, who have spent most of their lives in Southern Africa (Namibia and South Africa).
